

THE CITY OF NORFOLK INVITES YOU TO A PUBLIC MEETING

Join your neighbors to Help Plan the Future

for the CENTRAL HAMPTON BOULEVARD AREA

WHEN

Tuesday evening,
February 7, 2006
6:30-8:00PM

WHERE

Larchmont Elementary School,
1145 Bolling Avenue

The City is beginning to create a comprehensive plan for the areas surrounding Central Hampton Boulevard (see inset map outlining the study area). We're planning an evening Community Open House and we want to hear your ideas about the future of your neighborhood.

The City has hired a national team of consultants, including planners, designers, market analysts, and transportation engineers, who will offer a preliminary analysis of the area's opportunities and challenges. Participants will then be asked to share their insights, ideas, and recommendations regarding these opportunities and challenges.

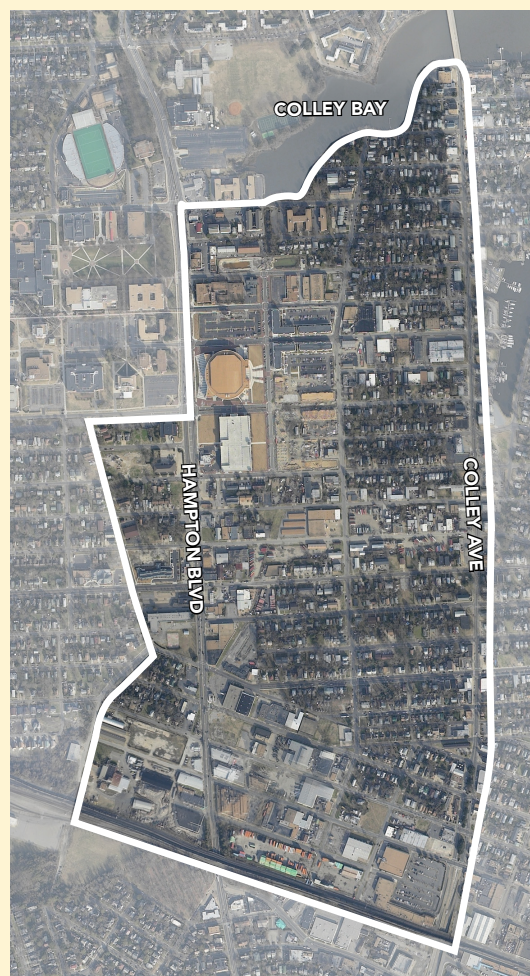

Join us! Whether you're a resident, business owner, employee, student or an area stakeholder, WE NEED TO HEAR FROM YOU!

This initial Open House is the first step in a series of planned community meetings over the next several months. The second public meeting—a community design workshop (where we will create a shared vision with you)—is scheduled for Monday evening, March 13, at a site to be announced.

WHAT ISSUES—SUCH AS HOUSING, PARKS, TRAFFIC, ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT—ARE MOST IMPORTANT TO YOU?

HOW CAN THIS PLAN IMPROVE THE AREA OVERALL?

HOW CAN THIS PLAN IMPROVE YOUR QUALITY OF LIFE AND THE QUALITY OF LIFE IN YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD?
